Foreign Language—the study of another language—from the ability of communicating orally, to the skill of reading with comprehension. An insight into the way of thinking of the people who speak the language. Learning also of their culture, their way of life. Breaking down the language barrier and acquiring a greater understanding of the people. Increasing the student's understanding of how the language functions, bringing him to a greater awareness of the functioning of his own language.

Social Studies Department—traces of man from his beginning to modern development. Discovering the world as it once was. Man's past as it has influenced man's future. Developing a greater awareness of man's behavior in relation to cultural, economic and political influences. Helping the student understand society—the controlling force of man—and his place in it.

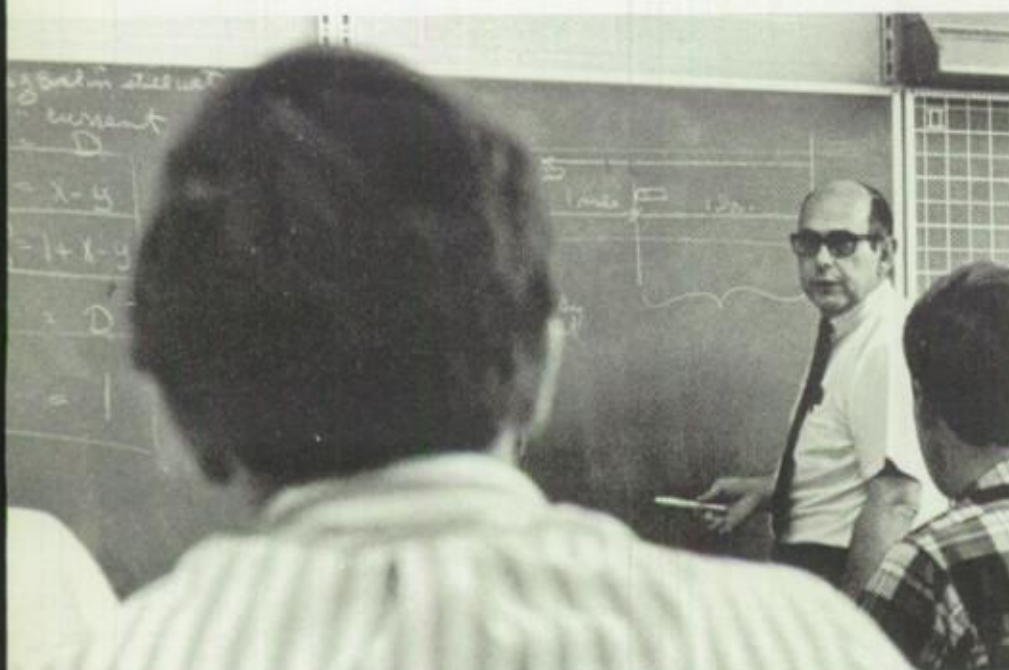

Lee Brower . . . American and Oklahoma History . . . Football and Baseball coach

Mrs. Wanda Frick . . . Algebra I and Geometry

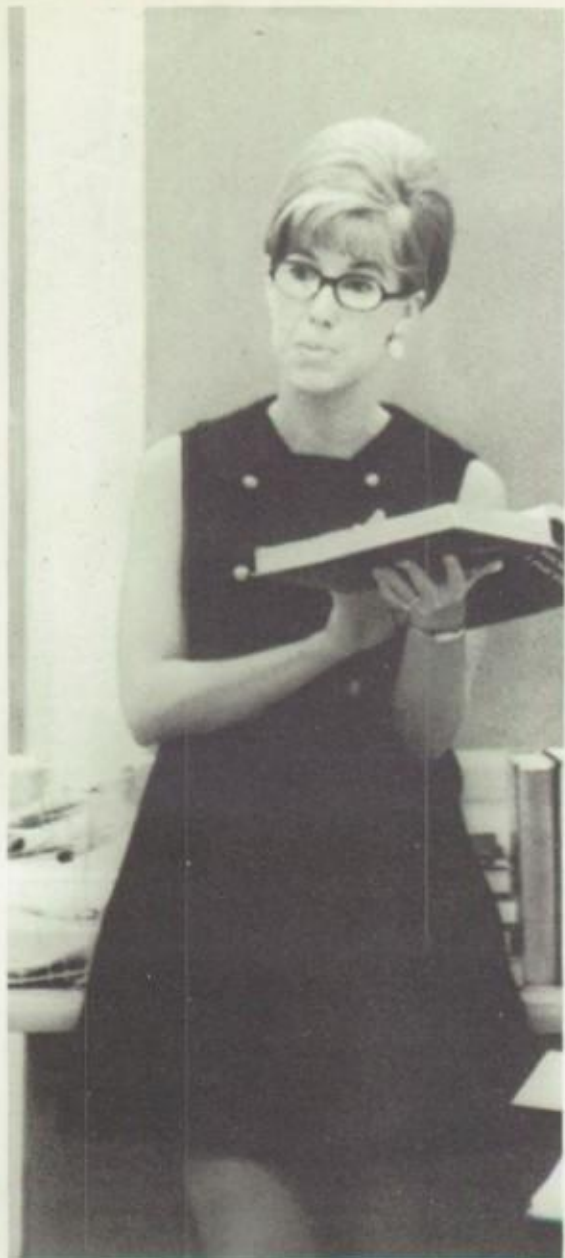

Mrs. Pamela Keys . . . Algebra I, Advanced Math, and Trigonometry . . . National Honor sponsor

E.M. Schmidt . . . Algebra II and General Math . . . Mu Alpha Theta sponsor

Mrs. Judy Fila . . . Business Math and Algebra I

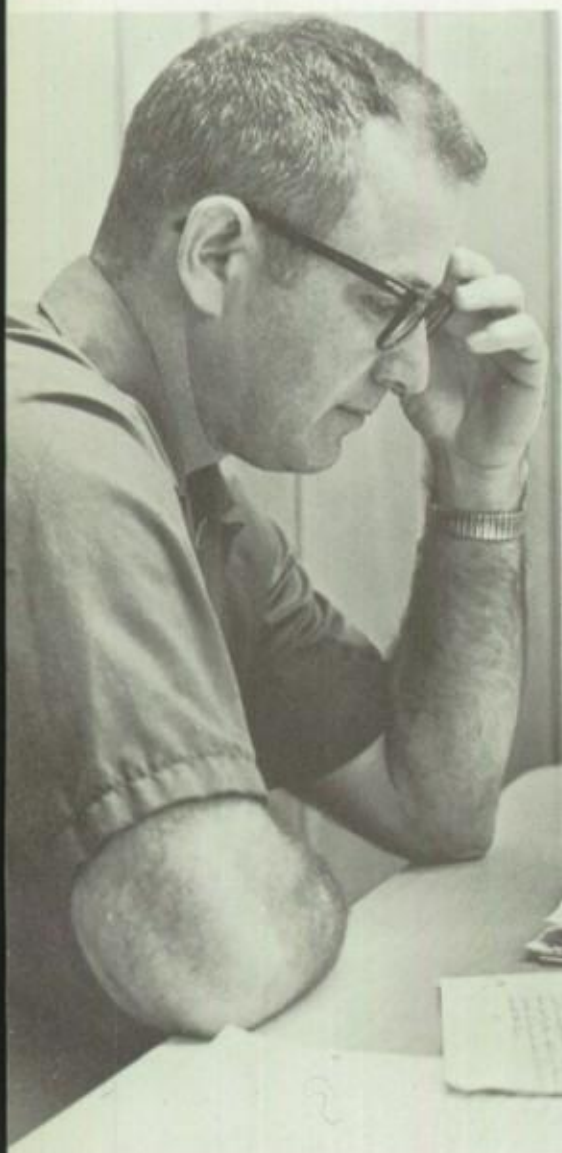

Mrs. Sue Fleming . . . General Math and Geometry

Mathematics Department—challenges offered through a number of courses—from General Math to Elementary Calculus. Lectures, discussion groups or special projects accommodate the needs and interests of each student. Equations to puzzle the mind. Problems seeming to defy logic and reason, but making sense in the end. All to be questioned and solved by acquired knowledge. Aided by a slide rule, a compass or even a ruler. Break down the “mental block” and many discoveries await the curious student.

Richard Lampe . . . Algebra II and General Math

Business Department—basic training to prepare students for employability in bookkeeping, distributive, secretarial and clerical occupations. Instructions in specialized skills necessary to understand and to adjust to the business world. Providing the basis from which to choose a career. Developing knowledge and skills that will enable the student to act as a wise and judicious consumer.

Dale Roark . . . Business Education . . . Basketball coach

Mrs. Harriet Day . . . Psychology

Mrs. Euphemia Griffith . . . Business

Mrs. Janetta Loper . . . Typing and Bookkeeping

David Heid . . . Orchestra

Ray Hunt . . . Band

Music Department—techniques of singing, playing or performing. Instrumental—Band, marching in parades or at football games; Orchestra, taking part in assemblies, clinics or concerts. Vocal—Mixed Chorus, participating in contest; Concert Choir, performing and representing the school; Madrigal, a select group of 16 voices. Blending notes into a song. Learning the fundamentals of music, growing in music training, working together as a group.

Student Council—"the" student governing body of C. E. Donart High School. An organization of six officers elected (but disputed) during an all-school election held in the spring of the preceding year and a representative from each homeroom elected the second week of school. The Student Council provides an opportunity for students at DHS to attempt participation in the operation of "the" school through democratic processes. The Council meets to discuss new business, to rediscuss old business and to distinguish its accomplishments from its tabled business. The Student Council maintains the operation of the Student Store, presents and regulates school assemblies, charters other student organizations and sponsors the major social activities including Howdy Week, Western Day, mixers and Sadie Hawkins Week.

Mu Alpha Theta—"an" organization which attempts to further an interest in and an understanding of mathematics. Being an honorary math club, requirements for membership consist of a 3.0 grade average in math, a 3.0 overall grade average and four semesters of math. Activities open with an ice cream party in September and continue with a trip to the Kirkpatrick Planetarium in Oklahoma City with Science Club. Speakers highlight the monthly meetings.

Mu Alpha Theta Officers—Ellen Eisenbraun, Mary Koeppe, Bob Nance, Elizabeth Hughes.

The "car bash" served as a money making project for the state convention. Showing his strength is Bill Fisher.

National Honor—"a" select group of
C. E. Donart's top scholars—the top ten per cent of the junior and senior classes and the second five per cent of the senior class. Officers are elected
from the five per cent
initiated during their junior year. Highlighting National Honor's activities this year was the State National Honor Convention, as well as working in concessions, a bake sale and having parties.

National Honor Officers—Randy Miller, Kathy Griffith, Susan Farmer, Mike Fitzgerald.

State Honor Officers—Mary Koeppel, Mary Stead, Phil Millington, Ellen Eisenbraun.

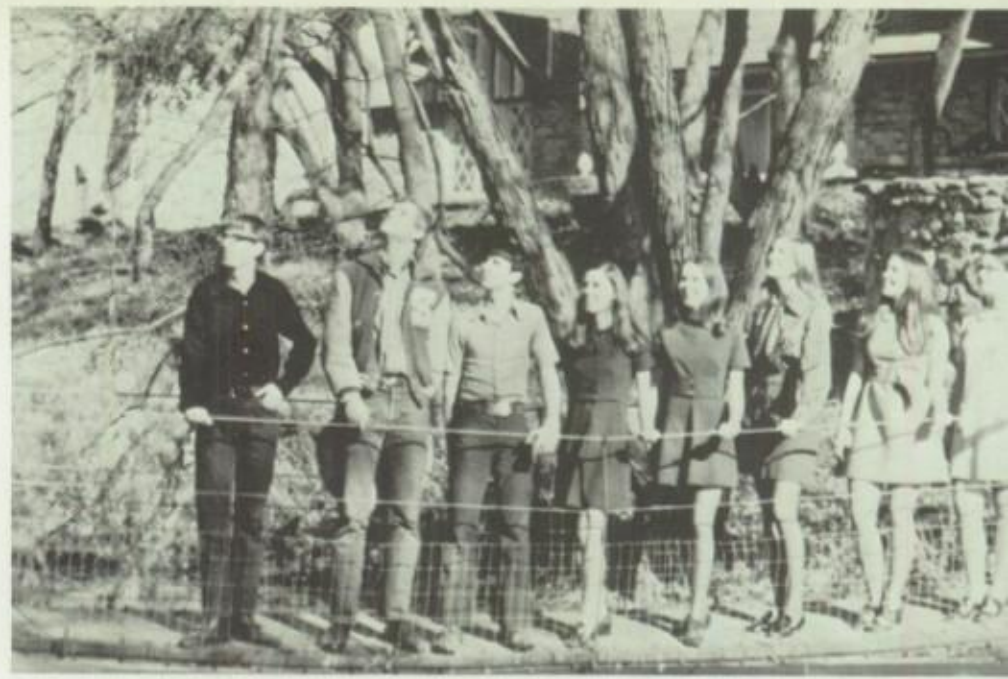

State Honor—"an" organization to promote a desire for scholastic achievement and to recognize "honor" students. Various speakers are invited to monthly meetings to speak on subjects which are or may prove to be relevant to the students. Members of State Honor are responsible for the opening exercises at assemblies and serving as ushers at graduation and Baccalaureate services. The year's activities are concluded with a banquet held to install new officers and to present State Honor certificates. Membership is taken from the top ten per cent of each class. By having bake sales and working in concession stands additional revenue is earned.

A decision must be made, but not wishing to be hasty, Scot Dean, Cindy Wiseman, and Phil Torrance, cast of "Star Spangled Girl", pause to contemplate.

Thespians—"the"
organizations for all students interested in any phase of drama. Points are given for participation in skits, plays and assemblies. Thespian
members present,
prepare and produce dramatic productions
for the student body and the public. Money raising activities include bake sales and ticket sales plus play promotion. This year Thespians presented "Star Spangled Girl" and won first prize for their
"Pioneer City" during Western Week activities—namely, the hall decorations.

Bridget Sandmeyer was crowned as D.E. Queen at the annual DECA Queen's Ball held in early December. Her attendants were Libby Preston and Sherri Laughlin. Escorts were Leo Presley, Rick Hesser, and Steve Fennel.

Santa Claus, alias Steve Fennel, made an appearance at the December breakfast meeting. The club gave gifts to underprivileged children in town as a Christmas project.

Seven delegates attended the state DECA convention in Oklahoma City early in March.

Distributive Education Clubs of America—"that" phase of vocational education which stresses marketing, sales distribution and sales training in its learning processes. To enroll in the course, a student must be "at least" 16 years of age and be a junior or senior. Personality, dress, and proper grooming are stressed in club work. The D.E. Queen Ball and the Parent-Employer-Employee Banquet are the two main functions of the year. DECA resorts to fund raising only if dire financial problems arise.

Art—"the" ability of self-expression guided by the student's imagination, creativity and originality. Beginning with the basics of drawing and shading, then advancing to the illustration of one's own ideas in paintings and sculptures. Talents and skills serve as the textbooks for the course. With the techniques applied, inner thoughts become realities in color and design. The abstract becomes the concrete.

La Musica—"an"
organization for students who are interested in and enjoy music.

La Musica provides a variety of musical programs ranging from federated music club performance
to college performance in jazz and folk. The dues of club members provide an evening's entertainment at an outstanding musical event.

Vocal Music—"a" combination of student's talent and sound which blend together to form music as its end product. The Vocal Music Department is subdivided into Glee Clubs, Mixed Chorus, Concert Choir and Madrigal—each a distinct, but integral, part of the whole picture. Practices, preparation and memorization are required for contests and concerts. Quality, quantity and a drive for perfection make C. E. Donart High School's Vocal Music Department one of the most outstanding in Oklahoma.

Band—"an" organization for those students musically talented in brass, woodwind or percussion instruments. Early practices, precision marching, preparation for contests and concerts, plus hard work and self-sacrifice make C.E. Donart High School's band unique plus one of the most widely known and honored. Being and remaining in band, demands a lot from its members and new director, Ray Hunt.

George,
It was really an experience getting to know you this year.
Hope I'll see you
this summer.
You really have George and I examined

honor in our school I'm sure you'll have a good luck!

Pep Club—"a" group of 299 girls who set as their goal promoting school spirit plus encouraging support and attendance at all "Pioneer" athletic events. Pep Club members decorate the halls (and goalposts in football season), take bus trips to out-of-town games and organize skits for pep assemblies. Dressed in blue and gold uniforms, "pep club girls" form an integral part of the school and its athletic achievements.

Newspaper Staff—"a" group of individuals who each week attempt to tell the week's activities as they happened in a one page version of a school paper, namely, the All-School News. Getting all the news as accurately and precisely as possible is the staff's weekly goal. Feature stories, special columns, national issues, opinion polls and editorials are special features of C.E. Donart's unique facsimile of a school newspaper.

Getting the scoop for the ASN are Dave Greiner, Beth Odell and Paula Guest

Jim Griffith, Dick Duff, Tom Jacob, Barbara Reed, Carol Aldrich, Phil DeLozier, LaDonna Tucker.

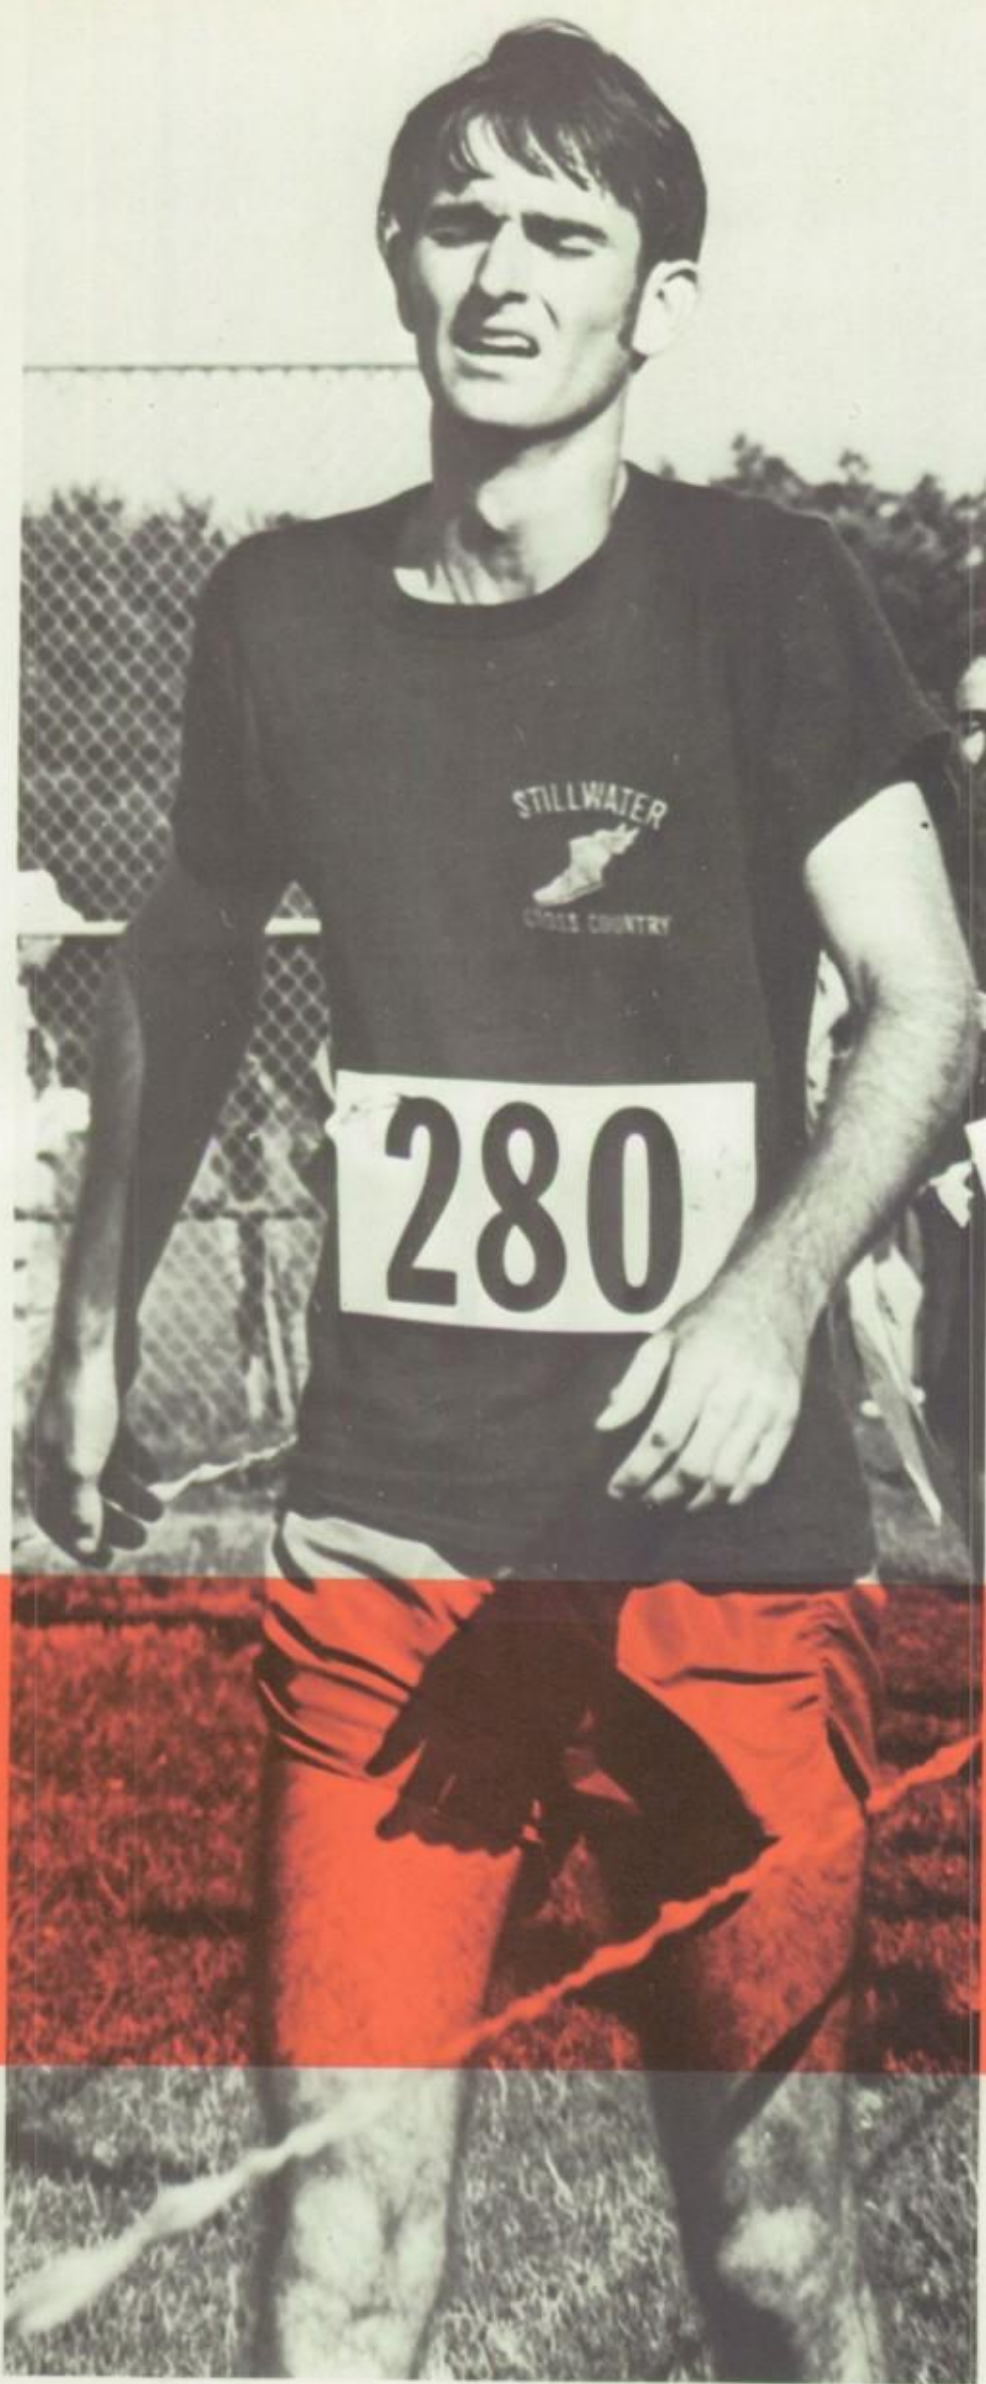

Annual Staff—"a"

hand-picked group of individuals who have as their goal
not only expressing themselves,
but also the year and what it has to hold.
Few people, besides the staff
and its sponsor, realize how much time,
effort and
hard work are necessary to convert 240 blank pages into an annual
that has something to say. Individuality, creativity, ingenuity, imagination and the unusual are the instruments put to use
by the staff.
Daring to do
what has never been done before
and placing it
into reality
by using pictures and words
is the annual staff's main aim.

Football—Pioneers
possessing certain essentials:
endurance, stamina, confidence.

In short, guts. Content with victories (five), dejected
with defeat (five), agonized
by a tie (one). Daunted by injuries. Perplexed by incompletions and penalties.

Either sweaty, rainy, or frostbitten, yet instilled with a certain team pride and common bond. All putting forth their best effort
for the Pioneers of
C. E. Donart
High School.

Fullback Dick Duff picks up 15 yards on a draw play against Enid.

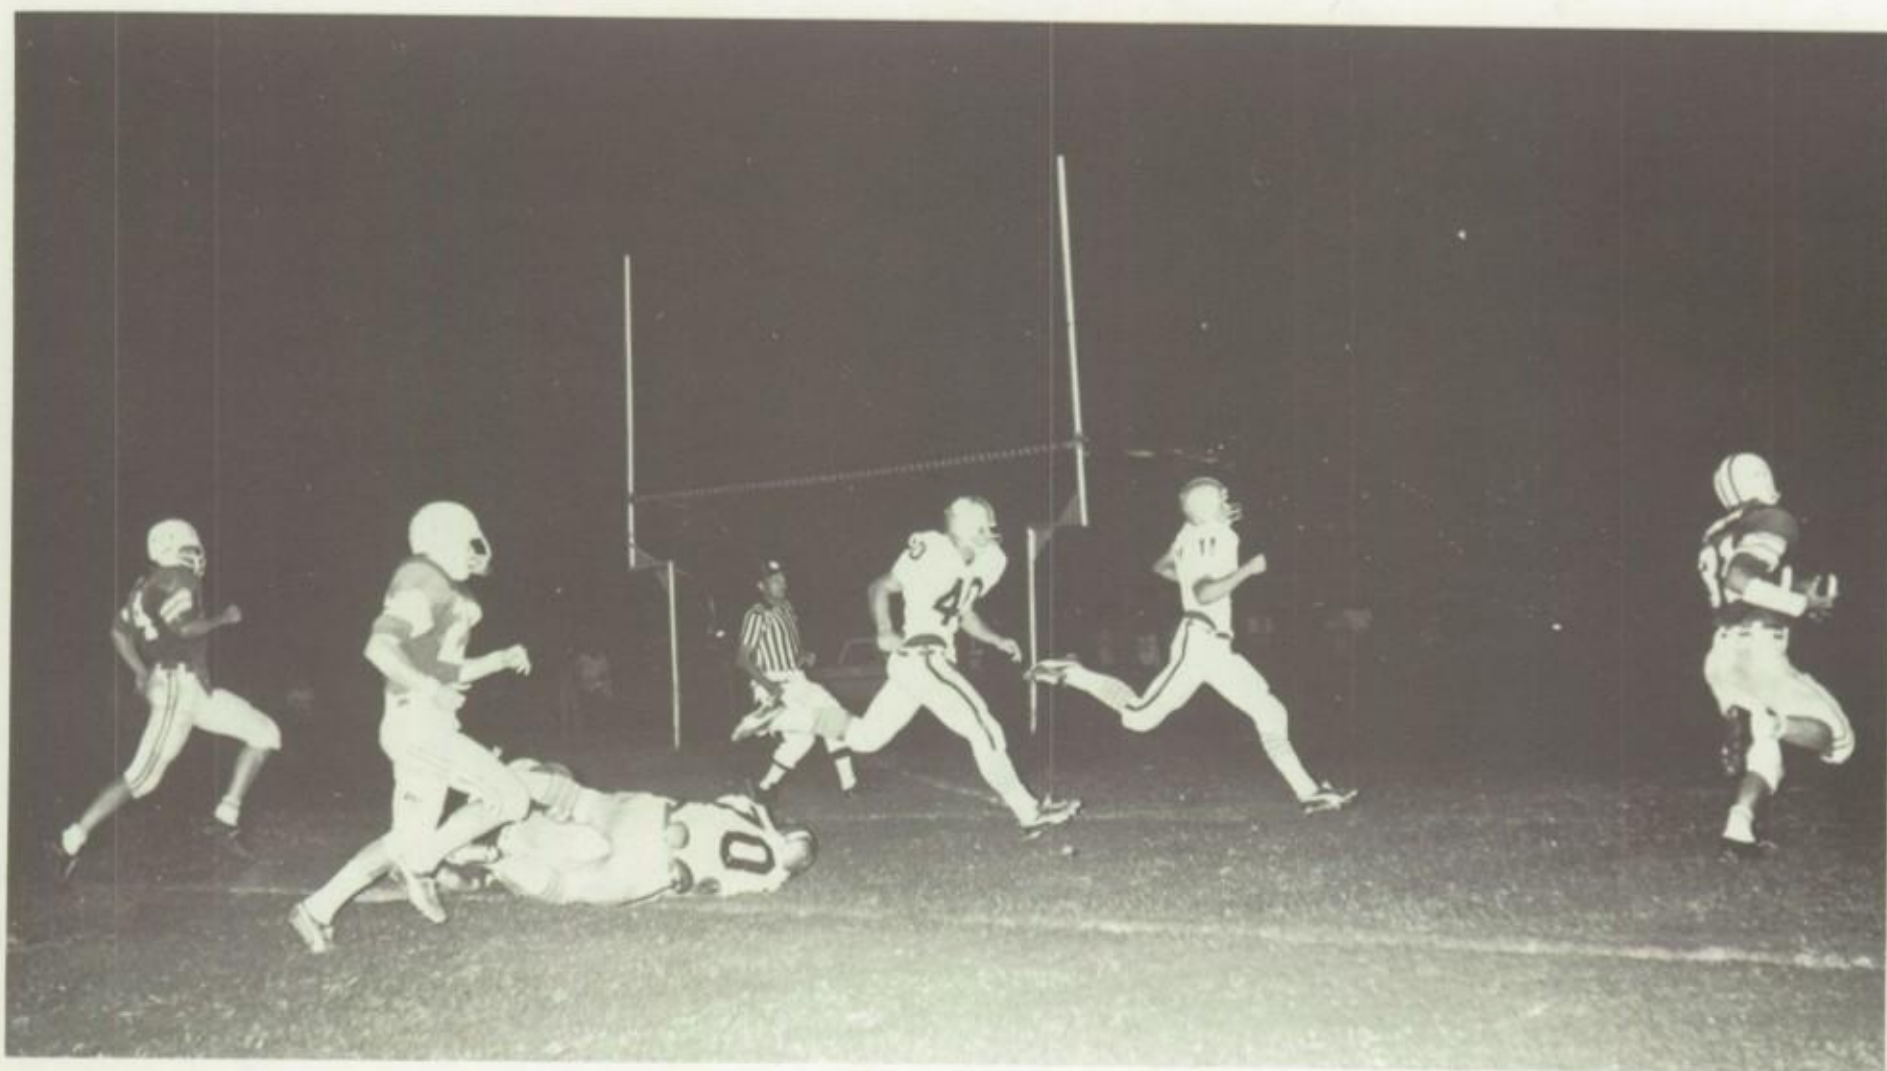

Bill Nichols hauls in a Kyle Logan pass.

Senior Bill Nichols breaks into the secondary and is finally stopped by a Sapulpa Chieftain after 12 yards.

Co-Captain, Bruce Neph, hangs onto a Sapulpa halfback until help arrives.

Dick Duff, Senior Co-Captain, intercepts a pass in the third quarter against Enid. Duff takes it in for six points.

Junior Jack Reynolds goes high in the air to deflect this pass meant for Sapulpa's split-end.

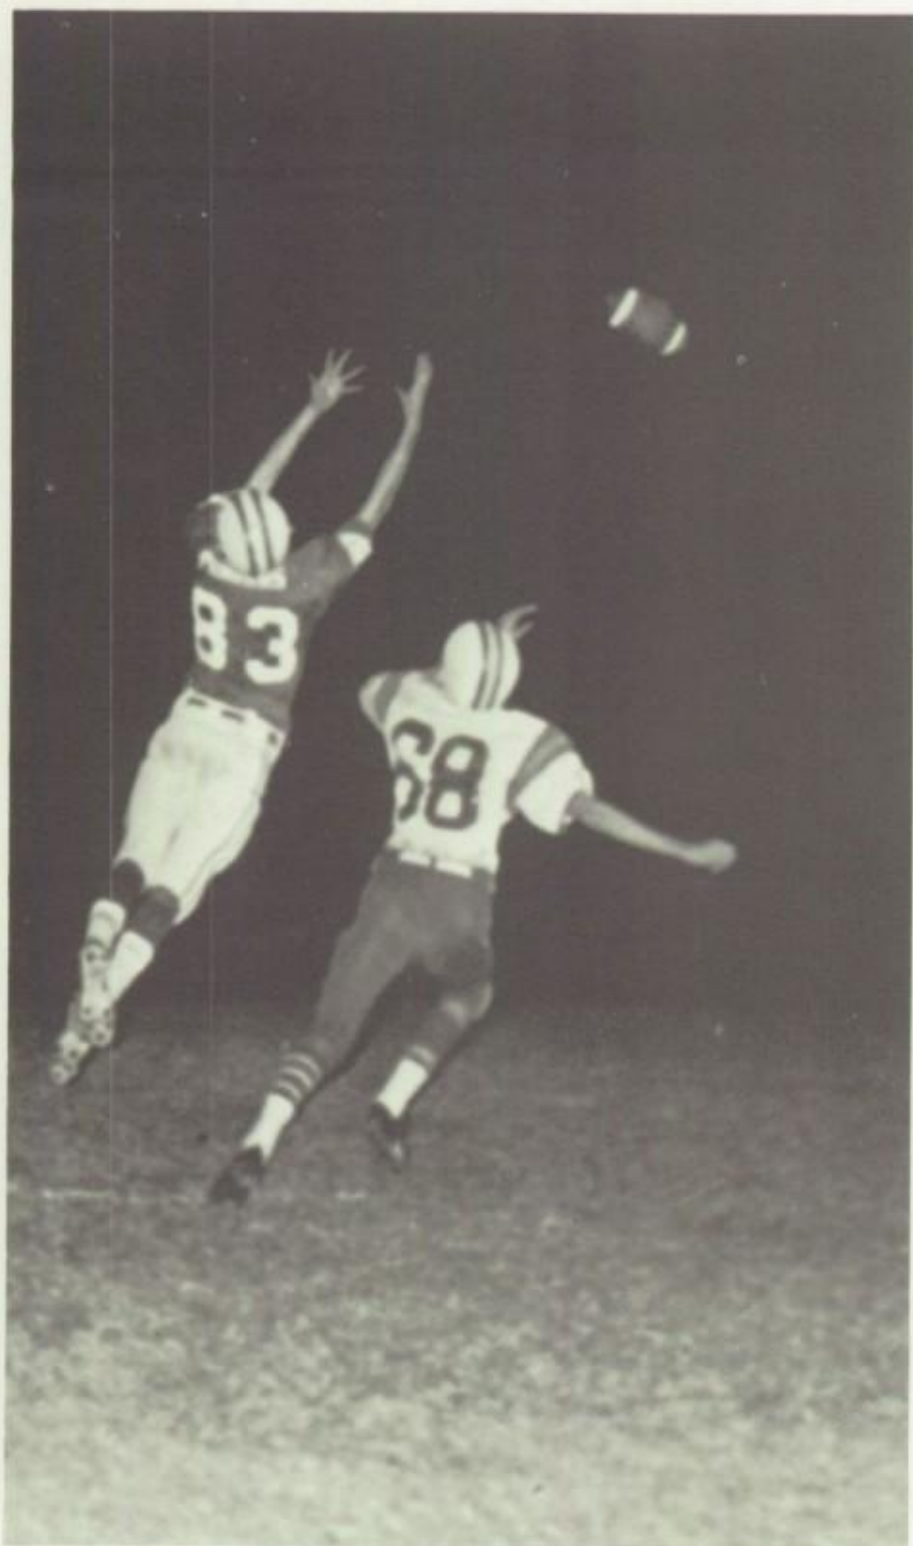

Linebacker coach, Dan Jack, seems disgusted as he focuses his attention towards the game.

Bill Allen breaks toward the goal line as he outruns any possible defenders.

Fullback Mike Fitzgerald finds a wide open hole against the Cushing Tigers. Seniors Scott Demaree (21) and Dick Duff block as quarterback Kyle Logan looks on.

In the clear against Bartlesville Sooner defenders, Harley Thomas goes high in the air for a stray Pioneer aerial.

The Pioneer Footballers opened their 1970 season against number one ranked Enid. The first half ended 0-0 and with less than a minute in the game the score was tied 6-6. With only 38 seconds left, the Plainsmen hit on a long pass and won 12-6.

The second game of the season sent the Pioneers to Cushing for a surprisingly hard fought 24-0 victory for the Pioneers.

Arch rival Ponca City came to town the next week and made shambles of Pioneerland by stunning the Pioneers 24-0.

District play opened for the Pioneers as they traveled to Blackwell for their fourth encounter of the year. The Pioneers came back from the previous week's loss to down the Maroons 48-6.

The mid-way point of the season had rolled around as the Pioneers went to Shawnee to take on the number three ranked Wolves. Sleet and rain, along with a strong Shawnee defense, held the Pioneers scoreless as the Wolves devoured the Pioneers 26-0.

Homecoming and Western Day activities highlighted the week as the Pioneers downed Cascia Hall in the drizzled rain 19-5.

A piece of the District Title was at stake as the Pioneers traveled to Bartlesville to meet the College High Wildcats. A game opening drive by the Pioneers gave them a 7-0 lead and the game. A gallant goal-line stand in the final minute preserved the Pioneer victory.

The District Championship was the prize at stake as the Bartlesville Sooner Spartans invaded Hamilton Field. All the Pioneers needed for the title was a tie, and the defense did that by shutting out the Spartans 0-0. The Pioneers were now the champs of 3A-5.

The regular season finale saw the Sapulpa Chieftains declaring war on the Pioneers. In this game the Pioneers scored 21 points, while the Dudes (the defense) gained their fifth shutout of the 1970 campaign.

The 1970 State Play-offs paired the Pioneers against the Claremore Zebras. The game, played at Claremore, gave the fans many thrills as the two teams played within one touchdown of each other most of the way before Claremore prevailed 31-19. The team finished the season with a 5-5-1 mark. The Pioneers are looking toward next year as thirteen lettermen return with high hopes.

Basketballers—"tree-like" players made up the '70-'71 Pioneer edition of a basketball team. Under the coaching of an 18 year veteran, Martin 'Red' Loper, the cagers ended the regular season with a respectable 16-6 record.

Compiling one of the finest Pioneer teams in recent years, the basketballers, who earned sixth place rankings in Class 4A in polls taken by both the Daily Oklahoman and the Tulsa World, engineered upset victories over two highly touted 3A squads, Guthrie and Okmulgee.

Arising like the downed Phoenix, the basketballers bounced back after an early season losing streak to climax the year in regional and district play.

During the midst of the uprising, 6-6 senior and starting forward, Bill Allen, was awarded co-player of the week by the Tulsa World following back-to-back wins over Okmulgee and Shawnee.

Six seniors finishing their last season for the Bronze and Blue are Fred Ahrberg, Bill Allen, Rick Dearing, Mike Kelly, Jim Nichols, and Phil Torrance. These boys enabled the Pioneers to finish with such a good record along with the help of Juniors Larry Cawood and Gary Platt.

Bill Allen (11) tips the ball out to Rick Dearing (50) as Phil Torrance watches.

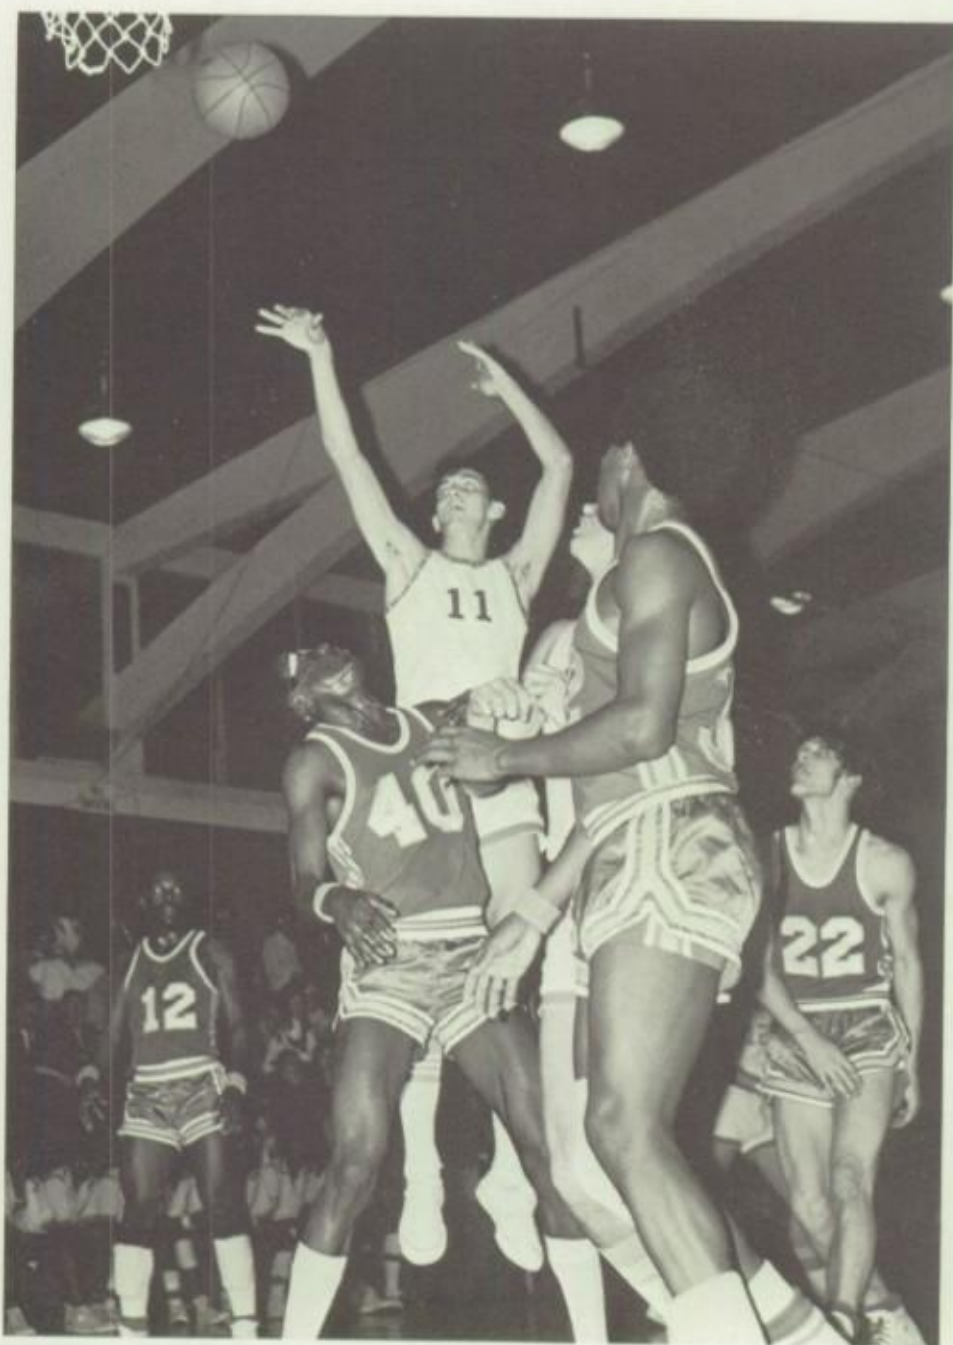

Senior Mike Kelly looks bewildered as his opponent moves in.

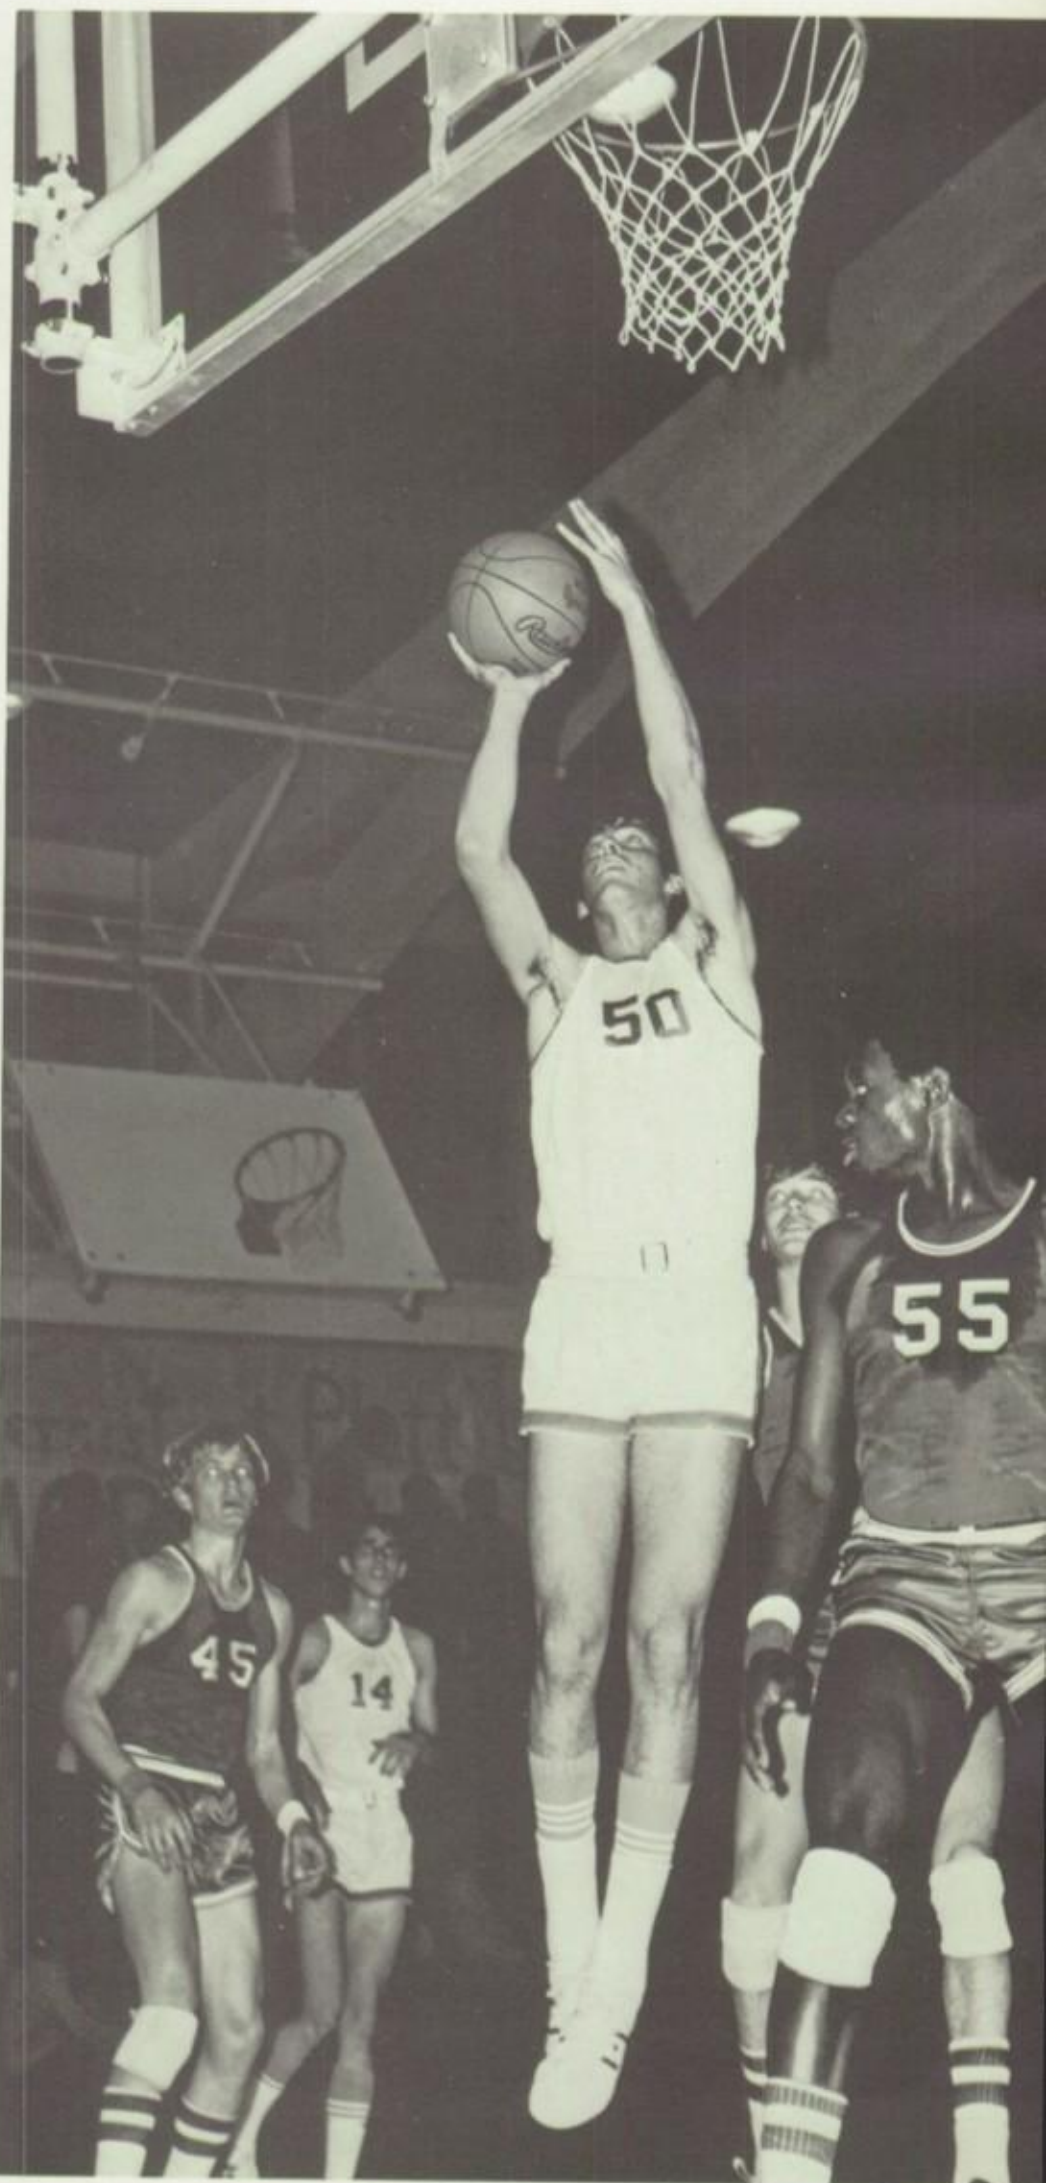

Pioneer center Rick Dearing goes high in the air on a tip ball as Jim Nichols (45) and Mike Kelly (14) stand ready with Bill Allen standing preoccupied.

Senior forward Phil Torrance rises from the floor after committing a foul.

Starry-eyed Bill Allen shoots short because he forgot his Wheaties, as Rick Dearing and Fred Ahrberg look on.

Senior pivot man Rick Dearing (50) goes in for a lay-up and two points.

Well George just keep up doing what you've been doing and you'll do just fine. You know what I mean
Mark Dobson

Morteza Tavakoli returns a serve with a forehand swing.

Tennis Team 1971—Mark Dobson, Morteza Tavakoli, David Stout, Tim Tripp, Mike Dobson.

Track—"a" dashing group of young athletes. Distance or timing: that is the question. A sport
that requires individual effort
as a prerequisite. The meets—sometimes indoors, but usually outdoors. Stopwatch accuracy.
Hurdles, shot
putts, pole vaulters,
jumpers,
runners, discus
throwers,
broad jumpers—the tracksters.

Captains are Ralph Vick, Steve Wiggins, and Mike Fitzgerald.

Masses

Freshmen of "the" High School. Big changes from Junior High. Unaccepted at first. Learning to stand on their own two feet second. Six classes a day.

(P.E., Civics, and Oklahoma History are a must.)

Stuck up about the mighty Raiders. Struck down by "the" Pioneers. Handicapped by the unfamiliar, involved in the school's curriculum, yet separate in competing for honor and glory.

Juniors of C. E. Donart High School. Slogans of '72. A greater role in school activities and projects—planning “the” Prom, making money, spending money, losing money. The first to get patented class rings—new marks of distinction. Beginning to have more of a voice in daily routines. (Except for English and American History.) Expanding responsibilities, preparing them for the leadership that tomorrow will demand.

The Junior Class of 1971 elected as their officers: Debbie Hoke, secretary; Gary Taggart, president; Mary Berkenbile, treasurer; and Gary Platt, vice-president.

Winter fashion: Gayla McGlamery.

George,
 It's been a good year (no matter what you say!). I sure hate to see it go - but I try to think of it as more of a beginning than an end.

Next year could be the most best (good english!) year of your high school life! Make the best of it!

God Bless you

(Sentiment?)
 Love,
 Camille

Seniors of "the" C. E. Donart High School, Class of '71. Finally,
 at the top of the totem pole. A reputation to uphold. Underclassmen not to be let down. Youth coming to an end, yet
 maturity
 lying in the future. Ambitions to meet. Reality
 to face. Decisions, problems and challenges
 to be dealt with accordingly. Opportunities to go out into "the" world, "the" service or
 "a" college. A senior year—
 another end
 to a chapter
 in the journey through life.

Elected by fellow classmates as Senior Royalty are Steve Thomas and Camille Convertino.

A black and white photograph of a snowy landscape. In the foreground, a wooden fence runs diagonally across the frame. The ground is covered in a thick layer of snow. Several bare trees are scattered throughout the scene, their dark trunks and branches contrasting with the white snow. The background shows more trees and a distant horizon line.

The pathways
we once strolled,
now covered by
the web of time,
await our return.
